Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Linda Schrempp has dedicated 35 years of service as an employee with the state of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, In 1968, Linda began as senior stenographer with the Human Services Center; and,

Whereas, Linda's interest in computers led her to spend many hours reading and teaching herself all she could about computers, and in 1989, she was reclassified to computer support specialist; and,

Whereas, In 1996, following the reorganization of the Bureau of Information and Telecommunications, Linda transferred to that agency as a computer support specialist; and,

Whereas, In 1998, through continued, dedicated efforts and contributions, Linda was reclassified as a programmer/analyst; and,

Whereas, During her career, Linda received numerous meritorious awards. Linda was the local HSC computer resource person, automation problem solver, computer system trainer, and a survivor of the Year 2000 'bug' exterminator effort; and,

Whereas, After retirement, Linda plans to spend more time camping and relaxing; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement from the Human Services Center on July 3, 2003:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 3, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join her many friends and colleagues in the Human Services Center in offering Linda best wishes for an enjoyable retirement.

LINDA SCHREMPP DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twentieth Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State